

Kathy FLOYD

Kathy has had her life planned out . . . several times! But the Lord has directed her steps down other paths than the ones she anticipated. As a single woman, wife, daughter and stepdaughter, mom and stepmom, funeral director, health educator and now a therapist, she has walked through some of life's most difficult situations . . . the suicide of a family member, a serious illness, a miscarriage and a premature baby, to name a few . . . only to come out on the other side with the blessed assurance that God is sufficient for the circumstances we face. Kathy wants people to know right up front that she does NOT have it all together! If you can relate to that, or if the life you had planned has been redirected by death, divorce, disease or other difficulties, she can show you the faithfulness of a God who refuses to let you make your journey alone. Her favorite things to do include talking about the Lord and making people laugh, often at the same time!

what people are saying about terrica

"We were truly blessed to have Terrica speak at a session during our 2008 women's retreat. Speaking from her heart and her own past experiences we found her passionate, honest and transparent, grounded in biblical truths. She is a delightful, engaging young woman."

—Jan Lackey, Women's Ministries Director, The Church at Rocky Peak

"Terrica is an incredible communicator. Her passion and transparency captivates people so that the Word can transform their lives. She has an amazing grasp on the pulse of this generation. There are very few communicators I trust to speak into my students' lives, but Terrica is one of them."—Chris Lindberg, Youth Pastor, Northstar Church

"Whenever Terrica travels with me, I put a microphone in her hand. It would be poor stewardship not to. Her testimony is so powerful, and her boldness and willingness to vulnerably share both her struggles and triumphs always ministers to the audience on many levels."—Shannon Ethridge, best-selling Author and Speaker

"Terrica's vibrant spirit is one of things you'll notice about her first. As time passes, though, you'll come to realize that she also possess the rare combination of boldness and humility. That particular pairing of strengths is not only what draws people to her message, but more importantly, to her Savior."—Tara Leigh Cobble, Singer/Songwriter
