WHAT IS THE LOCATION LIKE?

The Naia Resort & Spa encompasses 19 acres of secluded beachfront and lush landscapes within the private 200-acre Cocoplum Community on Belize's Placencia Peninsula. The property extends along nearly a mile of palm-studded beach where 35 beautifully appointed beach houses envelop guests in casual residential-style luxury.

At the heart of the resort lays Naia Spa, so named to reflect the free-spirited nature of the resort and the ever-present connection between land and water. This breathtaking retreat is spread over a collection of small islands dotting an enchanting freshwater lagoon where skilled and experienced therapists work their restorative magic. The spa also features a fully equipped fitness center, plus a yoga and movement studio that overlooks a tranquil lagoon.

Three inviting restaurants encourage you to savor an authentic taste of Belize with seasonally influenced menus and specialty drinks. Explore the beauty of the peninsula with kayaks and paddle boards, enjoy a refreshing swim in the saltwater pool, or journey further afield to explore one of the many cultural, land, or sea tours.

WHAT IF WE WANT TO STAY LONGER?

Because this is a highly acclaimed “boutique resort” with very limited space (35 beach houses total), we’ve booked ALL rooms available for our participants while each of the workshops are in session. Therefore, if you want to spend a few extra days at the Naia Resort & Spa, please plan to do so PRIOR to May 28 (for those attending May 28-31), or AFTER May 31 (for those attending May 31-June 3) if possible. If your available dates for staying additional nights MUST coincide with our other session, we will put you on a wait list and let you know after April 1, 2020 if any beach house reservations can be made available to you. Again, Dr. David Lawson will help via email with any such planning if needed.

Your NEXT STEP is to visit www.shannonethridge.com/workshops, scroll down to the Sexually Confident Couple Workshop section, and complete the application form. We'll respond within 72 hours with an official Confirmation Packet.

Let us know if you have any questions at all by emailing shannon@shannonethridge.com or david@renew-church.org.

Let's pray for a life-changing four days together in Belize!

Warmly,

Shannon, David & Charlie
